Building bridges between research and teaching

Taormina (Italy), 2nd-6th November, 2005

Our feedback report

The Organisational Team feedback form

1. The good things
2. The bad things
3. The very bad things
4. Special thanks
5. The next one

1. The good things

- The high quality of conference sessions
- The high standard of knowledge and communication of the speakers
- The adherence to the conference schedule (better than swiss sharpness)
- Your confirmation of appreciation and thanks (to me and to our assistants)
- Your warmth, affection and kindness
- The availability of hotel and restaurants staff to satisfy all your needs and necessities.

2. The bad things

- The pressing requests to modify the accompanying persons registration fee, concerning to the used facilities.
- Our assistants had to trace some attendees for the payment of the outstanding registration fees (with some unpleasant comments such as: “I did not know...; there must be a misunderstanding...; the website information were not clear...)
- The “last minute cancellation”, or “no show” without paying
 - 1 case: 1 day-notice
 - 3 cases: no notice at all

3. The very bad things

- The problems in obtaining the VISA for 3 registered conference attendees:
 - 2 from Saudi Arabia (last minute cancellation)
 - 1 from Uzbekistan (a free registration reserved to developing countries)
